Campaign Spending: List of Filers

I am an independent. I do not take orders from any political party. My allegiance is strictly to my constituents, and no one else.

I refuse to receive contributions from anyone. Every organization and individual gives funds to a candidate in the expectation that they will receive something in return, if the person is successful. My position is to do the most good for the largest segment of the people. I am not for sale, and to me PAC means, "Purchase A Candidate!"

I totally believe that every individual is responsible for their own actions. We all must be aware of the consequences, both positive and negative of what we do. The delegating of responsibility to others must be terminated. It is my sincere belief that as adults we must have the right to do whatever we want with our own person or property (providing our actions do not physically infringe on the person or property of a non-consenting other adult.) I intend to follow this course of action if I am elected. If this sounds like something that makes sense, consider what the others are proposing.

Seeking office as a non-partisan (Independent) candidate in Hawai'i is difficult. Very difficult. Forget who the labor unions are telling you to vote for. Forget who the political parties are telling you to vote for. Examine what each has to offer, and then YOU decide which candidate warrants your support. However that's something the unions and political parties don't want you to do.
